

Follow the 3 C's + Q Commenting Framework for Online Group Discussions in Flipgrid

Compliment - Start off positive. Compliment the person on something specific you have heard in the person's video post.

- I really like your comment on...
- It is evident that you have put a great deal of thought into...

Comment - Comment on something relevant and meaningful about what the person said. Be specific about what you're commenting on. Remember your comment might not always be agreement. You can "politely and tactfully" disagree.

- Although you say that.... I think that...
- You make a good point about... I also want to point out that...

Connect - Connect with something the person shared. Be sure to explain that connection with details and give a complete explanation or picture of what you're talking about. Think of it as adding information or insight - or another point-of-view.

- When you say .... It reminds me of...
- Your comment on... reminds me of...

Question - Ask a specific question about something said. Keep the conversation going!

- Why do you think...?
- What if....
- Do you think...?
