Reflective Thinking	My reflection explains my own thinking and learning processes, as well as implications for future learning.	My reflection explains the my thinking about my learning and process.	I try to show my thinking about learning but I need to be a little more clear about how I'm learning.	What I wrote is not about sharing my thinking or reflections.
Making Connections	My reflection provides multiple in depth connections between this learning experience and content from other modules, past learning, and personal connections	My reflection provides connections between this learning experience and content from other modules, past learning experiences, and personal connections	My reflection attempts to articulate connections between this learning experience and content from other areas, but my connection is unclear.	My reflection does not articulate any connection to other learning or experiences.
Analysis	I have considered the questions thoughtfully and made an effort to thoroughly respond with depth, reasons or examples.	I have explored questions with some depth, but could elaborate a bit more with reasons or examples.	I have addressed a question partially, but could add more detail or explanation into my thinking.	I responded but did not address the question.
